WE ARE COMING, OLD KENTUCKY.

News Note.—There are 600,000 Kentuckians living all over that part of the world outside of the state, and they are to have a Home Coming Week at Louisville in June, to which all have been invited. They are singing this song:

We are coming, Old Kentucky,
Six hundred thousand more,
From Mississippi's winding stream
And far New England's shore;
The outside things we like,
With our hearts too full for utterance,
And homeward all we like.

We are coming, Old Kentucky,
Compared with what's before—
We are coming, Old Kentucky,
Six hundred thousand more.

If you look across the hilltops
That meet in the great sky,
Long moving in haze of the dust
You'll pretty soon descry—
And now the wind, an instant,
Tears the cloudy veil aside,
And you'll see your children coming,
Them a-walking as can't ride.

We yearn to roll in bluegrass,
The golden corn juice pour—
We are coming, Old Kentucky,
Six hundred thousand more.

You have asked us, and we're coming,
All the young ones and the old,
All the men and all the women,
Who are now outside the fold;
We are hungry for the welcome
Now, now, now, when we're here,
We are thrashing for the "How d'ya"
That we know will fill the air.

We have waited long, and waiting
Makes us hone to see you, shore—
We are coming, Old Kentucky,
Six hundred thousand more.

—H. J. Lampton.

The Ohio ins and the Ohio outs threaten to make a whole lot of trouble for the dear people, and a whole lot of fees for the lawyers, because Governor PATRICK insists on being sick. It is claimed by some that everything that has been done at Columbus since the first of January is of no force whatever, and some "ambulance chaser" has dug up the proof to prove it. The plan is to declare that the Governor is incompetent to perform an official act, by reason of a "disability" clause in the whiskerettes of the law.

COLONEL KANG YU WAN, President of the Chinese Reform Association, a few days ago took a shy at Uncle Sam's Exclusion Act in this unvarnished English—

"My countrymen see emigrants of all other Nationalities every year pouring into the United States by the million, while the sober, industrious, law-abiding Chinaman is rigorously excluded. They naturally resent this, and are deeply humiliated by it."

"To disregard what is simple fairness to us today means to alienate the sentiments of a Nation able to think and act for itself."

And it must be confessed that the Colonel has at least WAN the best of the argument.

Captain Mark Casto was being congratulated on his gift of $1,500 from the Carnegie Hero Fund for bravery in the wreck of the Cherokee.

"The gift was unexpected," said Captain Casto, with a modest smile. "It was as unexpected, though by no means as unpleasant, as the retort that a wife made to her husband when he came home at 3 o'clock in the morning.

"The man came home very quietly. In fact, he took off his shoes on the front doorstep. Then he unlocked the door and went cautiously and slowly upstairs on tiptoe, holding his breath.

But light was streaming through the keyhole of the door of the bedroom. With a sigh he paused. Then he opened the door and entered.

"His wife stood by the bureau, fully dressed.

"I didn't expect you'd be sitting up for me, my dear," she said.

"I haven't been," she said. "I just came in myself."

benefactor of the school, Mr. Cave confined his theme largely to the needs of higher education, the while outlining the great good resulting from Mr. Hieatt's act, and enlisting the sympathy of others in carrying on the fine work so nobly begun. Mr. Cave's address was especially marked with deep thought and fine word painting.

It was suggested yesterday that the remains of James Hieatt and his good wife be transferred to the College lot and a suitable monument placed over them. Let it be done by all means, that future generations may honor those real philanthropists.

since, showed that her fingers had lost none of their delicate touch, nor her heart any of its youthful inspiration.

Hon. Clarence L. Sallee presided at the banquet with his accustomed grace, and it is the public testimony of Colonel Bain that his opening address was one of the finest ever given on like occasion.

Among the old-timers who composed the honored class, and who were present yesterday from a distance, were Mr. and Mrs. D. Frank Fraze of Lexington and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Winter of this city.

Mrs. Samuel Fraze was another of the music class of '56 who had not forgotten the touch, and who rendered a delightful number on the piano.

Among the after-dinner speakers, in addition to Toastmaster Sallee, were Dr. S. E. Pollitt, Colonel George W. Bain, Editor Thomas A. Davis, Editor J. Elgin Anderson, Prof. E. L. Gillis and Rev. P. A. Cave.

They say that any one who accepts a first invitation to visit Minerva never refuses a second one.

During the banquet there was a conference between Colonel Bain, Parson Cave, Editor Davis and Toastmaster Sallee, and they proceeded to hold an inquest over the golden-colored contents of pretty little pitcher. Colonel Bain, from the opulent Bluegrass; Parson Cave, from "Ol' Ver-giuni;" Toastmaster Sallee, from the wilds of East Third street, and Editor Davis, from his series in Riverview, knew it not. Just then came a lovely vision, clad in chiffon, a rosebud and a smile, "Is there anything wrong with the cream, gentlemen?" and there wasn't.

When you go to Minerva, they meet you with flowers; when you leave, they follow you with feasting.

It is needless to say a word as to Colonel Bain's address. His ability is too well known to need mention in Kentucky.

It was a proud day for the teachers in Minerva College and a prouder day for the usefullish officers of that noble institution.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Frye of East Third street, having bought a beautiful home in the "Highlands," Cincinnati, this charming couple will soon take up their residence there, much to the regret of a host of friends in this city.

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 82, and let us have it.

At the Christian Church tomorrow there will be an election of officers at the morning service. The Pastor's subject in the morning will be "Laborers Together With God;" evening, "The Church United at Work."

MASON'S HOME-COMERS

Every Effort To Be Made To Give a Hearty Welcome

It is expected that every Minister filling a pulpit in Mason county on next Sunday will make some reference to Home-Coming Week—what it means to the residents of Mason county and what it means to those who have been citizens of other states for a long or short period. It is to be hoped that a general interest can be awakened in the Home-Coming event. Surely every citizen of Maysville and Mason county will contribute his mite in money or work toward the success of Home-Coming Week.

The custodian of the Public Library has consented to keep the register and distribute the badges during Home-Coming Week. Every one returning to Mason county during this time will be expected to go at once to the Public Library in Sutton street, where Miss Richeon will provide the badges and attend to having the visitors register. This register will be expected to show the present name and address, the date at which the visitor left Maysville, and whether or not this is the first visit to the county of Mason during that time.

It has been suggested that Mason County Home-Coming include all the original territory embraced in Mason county when first organized. We think the idea a good one.

It is not expected that the Committee will provide homes for the visitors who will be here during Home-Coming Week. Doubtless they all prefer to visit their friends or pay for their own entertainment at our hotels. Consequently persons having friends who are likely to visit us at that time should arrange for their entertainment.

FUNDS FOR "HOME-COMING"

Finance Committee Asks Contributions For Entertainment of the Visitors

MAYSVILLE, KY., May 9th, 1906.

To Mason County People: As Chairman of the Finance Committee, I take this means to ask every family to render what financial assistance it can, in order that the Committee on "Home-Coming" can make the home-coming a grand success.

Possibly 75% of every family in Mason county will have relatives or dear friends coming here for this event, and it is a question now of money—how well we will be able to entertain them.

The Entertaining Committee is now waiting on our Committee to see how much money will be at their command.

Kindly send me what you can. It matters not how little, for every contribution will be highly appreciated.

PRESERVE THE ESPLANADE

Editor of The Ledger: As you have asked for an expression of opinion from citizens in regard to the proposed removal of the "Esplanade," you will permit an old citizen and taxpayer to enter an earnest protest against this extraordinary proposal. It is, as you say, the only open park-like space in this compact, crowded little city; a good deal of money has been spent upon this handsome improvement; it is the admiration of every visitor from the centers of civilization, in this country and abroad; with its trees and fountain, it gives picturesqueness to the busy scenes, and refreshment to the senses in the hottest days of good old summer time, a sort of refreshment, too, that the saloons cannot furnish and which the humblest citizen is privileged to enjoy. The parks are public retreats and open alike to rich and poor. They are well termed "breathing" spaces and it is a very bad municipal policy that would block up the sewers and close the parks. Before doing so, let us submit the proposal to a popular vote, after a thorough public discussion.

OF BUGGY TOPS,
OF PAINTED GEARS AND SPRINGS.

The time is now opportune and the place is here. Come in and let us show you how the foremost manufacturers of vehicles have so cleverly combined rim, spoke, top, and spring as to turn out a job that is near perfection as can be made. If you are thinking of buying you cannot afford to overlook our repository. We are always glad to see you, and shall take pains to explain all the points of the vehicle to you, that you may not buy with your eyes closed. We cannot afford to "do" you, as we expect to stay in business in Maysville the rest of our days, and therefore we cannot afford to lose one customer. Come in, and we will guarantee you a fair and square deal. Yours for "Greater Maysville."
